

Mae Fah Luang University Announcement

Subject: Regulations for substituting a TOEIC score for the Communicative English Exit Exam score, B.E. 2567

Mae Fah Luang University permits all undergraduate students to substitute standardized English test scores to fulfill their graduation requirement for the Communicative English Exit Exam.

Pursuant to Section 26 of the Mae Fah Luang University Act, B.E. 2541, and the resolutions of the Mae Fah Luang University Academic Council, no. 4/2567 dated 3rd April, B.E. 2567, the announcement is issued as follows:

1. This Announcement is entitled “Mae Fah Luang University Announcement Subject: Regulations for substituting a TOEIC score for the Communicative English Exit Exam score, B.E. 2567”.
2. This Announcement is henceforth effective.
3. All undergraduate students who are graduating from the University can submit their TOEIC score (Listening and Reading) as a substitute for the Communicative English Exit Exam score. The TOEIC score (Listening and Reading) must be equal to or above 785 and must be dated within 2 years of the Communicative English Exit Exam.
4. The students can voluntarily substitute their TOEIC score (Listening and Reading) for the Communicative English Exit Exam score and will be responsible for their own expense.
5. The President is acting on behalf of this Announcement and has the authority to make any final decisions concerning the implementation of this announcement. The President’s decision is final.
