Mae Fah Luang University's Rules
For Bachelor's Degree Education, 1999

Clause 19 Resignation

A student who wishes to resign must obtain a statement from the Finance Office certifying that the student owes no debt to the University and submit it to his/her advisor together with a completed resignation form, both of which shall be forwarded to the Dean and the President respectively for approval. It is imperative that the student's parents or person in loco parentis, whose signature has been given to the University as evidence, sign on the student's resignation.
