

Mae Fah Luang University's Announcement

Subject: Exit Examination Arrangement for International Students

(Return to Native Country Case) BE 2560

In order to assure the utmost educational quality of each graduating class, Mae Fah Luang University must administer an exit examinations to all undergraduate students intending to graduate from the institution. However, due to the fact that some international students must return to their native countries and, therefore, will be unable to return to take the final examination at Mae Fah Luang University, an alternate examination will be issued. The Exit Examination should not be viewed as an obstacle that prevents students' from graduating or from disallowing students of applying their knowledge relating to their particular profession altogether even after receiving all honors, rights and privileges belonging to their degree. As a result, in order to avoid a prolonged graduation process for international students, the university has published an announcement in the subject: Exit Examination Arrangement for International Students (Return to Native Country Case) BE 2560 with a reference to Mae Fah Luang University's act BE 2541 and the resolution from the university's academic council on Wednesday 1 November BE 2560), as the followings.

1. This announcement is called "Exit Examination for International Students (Return to Native Country Case) BE 2560."
2. Exit Examination will be arranged in a different format for international students who need to return to their native country and cannot return to Mae Fah Luang University. The students must submit a request that explains their reason to the university, and the university will consider each case individually.

3. The format of the Exit Examination will be arranged for international students who need to return to their native country after their graduation and will be arranged by the institutions with MOU or other institutions and, thus, there must be exam proctors for every examination.
4. Exit Examination in No. 3 will be arranged on the same date and time as the University's announcement of the Exit Examinations.
5. The president of Mae Fah Luang University has the absolute authority to make the final decision relating to any conflicting cases.
