

Mae Fah Luang University Notification
On Graduates' Eligibility to Attend a Degree Conferment Ceremony,
BE 2560 (2017)

Mae Fah Luang University considers that it is necessary to amend its regulation on graduates' eligibility to attend a degree conferment ceremony, for the benefit of the graduates

Acting on Article 26 of the Mae Fah Luang University Act, BE 2541 (1998), and by consent of Mae Fah Luang University Academic Council given in meeting 14/2560 (2017) on Wednesday 6 December 2017, Mae Fah Luang University hereby repeals Mae Fah Luang University Notification on Graduates' Eligibility to Attend a Degree Conferment Ceremony, dated 25 April 2014 and replaces it with this notification, which is detailed hereunder

Item 1 Only graduates from the same school year are eligible to attend the degree conferment ceremony of each year

Item 2 Students graduating in the first semester may be eligible to attend the degree conferment ceremony in the following school year, provided that their graduation is approved by Mae Fah Luang University Board of Trustees at least 60 (sixty) days prior to the degree conferment date scheduled for the following school year.

Item 3 This notification applies to the conferment of degrees upon the graduates of the school year 2016 and thereafter
