

Mae Fah Luang University's Notification On Medal Title

According to Clause 28 of Mae Fah Luang University's Rules For Bachelor's Degree Education, 1999 which stipulates that The first-class honours student who possesses the highest grade-point average in his/her discipline and in the same academic year is entitled to a medal', the members of the Medal Working Group reached a consensus in meeting 1/2004 on 6 October 2004 to appoint the medal a title that would clearly represent its purpose and significance.

Empowered by Article 26 (1) of the 1998 Mae Fah Luang University Charter and by the Mae Fah Luang University Academic Council's consent given in meeting 11/2004 on 13 October 2004, the University hereby appoints the title 'Magna Cum Laude Medal' to a medal conferred under the condition prescribed by Clause 28 of Mae Fah Luang University's Rules For Bachelor's Degree Education, 1999.

Issued this twentieth date of October 2004
