

Mae Fah Luang University's Rules
For Bachelor's Degree Education (Second Issue), 2000

In order for Mae Fah Luang University to attune its bachelor's degree education to the standard and criteria set by the Ministry of University Affairs, the University Council reached a consensus in meeting 3/2000 on 26 May 2000 and, empowered by Article 17 (2) and (6) of the 1998 Mae Fah Luang University Charter, hereby issues the following rules.

Clause 1 These rules are collectively referred to as 'Mae Fah Luang University's Rules for Bachelor's Degree Education (Second Issue), 2000'.

Clause 2 These rule are effective as of the beginning of academic year 2000.

Clause 3 Clause 4 of 'Mae Fah Luang University's Rules for Bachelor's Degree Education, 1999' has been annulled and replaced by the following statement:

'Clause 4 The President has the authority to enforce these rules. Cases where none of these rules applies are subject to the President's discretion, after which the President shall duly report to the University Council.'

Clause 4 The statements in Clause 22 of 'Mae Fah Luang University's Rules for Bachelor's Degree Education, 1999' have been annulled and replaced by the following statements:

'Clause 22 Change of Discipline

22.1 A student who wishes to change his/her discipline within the same School must follow the requirements of the target discipline.

22.2 A student who is eligible to request transfer to a different School must have completed at least two regular semesters of programmed study in his/her current School, must have obtained his/her current advisor's permission and the current Dean's approval, and must have been granted approval by the head of the target department and the Dean of the School to which the target department belongs. The student must submit a change of-discipline request to the Educational Service Centre within 30 days before the beginning of the semester in which the student's change of discipline is effective.

- 22.3 A change of discipline shall be effective only after the Discipline Change fee has been paid and a new student-identity number has been issued. Each student is allowed to change his/her discipline only once.'

Issued this twenty-six date of April 2000.
