

Mae Fah Luang University's Announcement

Re: Exit Examination for Undergraduate Students, 2010 (A Revised Version)

.....

In accordance with the Mae Fah Luang University Announcement regarding the exit examination for undergraduate students, 2010 dated August 16, 2010, the university has always aimed to assure the academic quality of its graduates. Towards this aim, an amendment has been made to the regulation regarding the examinees of the exit examination. This is an effort to improve clarity and appropriateness and boost efficiency for new graduates.

By virtue of Section 26 (10) of Mae Fah Luang University Act 1998 and the University Council regulations of 12/2002 dated October 9., 2002, along with the resolutions passed in the 9/2010 meeting of the university council on Tuesday, October 14, 2010, it has been decided to abandon the announcement dated 2010 dated August 16, 2010 and adopt the new following regulations (a revised version):

No. 1 This announcement is entitled "Mae Fah Luang University Announcement on the Exit Examination for Undergraduate Students, 2010 (a revised version)"

No. 2 All undergraduate students of Mae Fah Luang University must pass the exit examination in order to graduate.

No. 3 The examinees in the exit examination must meet the following criteria:

- 3.1 The students must have been enrolled for a minimum of 6 semesters.
- 3.2 The students must have achieved an accumulated Grade Point Average not lower than 2.00 in the latest semester.
- 3.3 Students expecting to graduate in the current semester are required by the university to take an exam.
- 3.4 The students must either be currently enrolled in all required courses or be able to enroll and complete the remaining required courses in the following semester, not including cooperative studies or internships.
- 3.5 The students must not have passed any part of the exit examination previously.
- 3.6 Apart from the above regulations, the school committee reserves judgment and may propose exceptions to the university council for approval on a case by case basis.

No. 4 The content of the exit examination comprises of 4 components:

- 4.1 Competency in English language.
- 4.2 Competency in information technology.
- 4.3 Knowledge of globalization, current issues, visions for the future, and critical thinking.
- 4.4 Knowledge and application of major course content.

No. 5 The registrar office and the school committee organizes an exit examination for graduating students in the first semester, the second semester, and the summer semester.

No. 6 The students must achieve not lower than 60% in each component stated in No. 4.

No. 7 In the case that a student does not achieve the passing criteria:

- 7.1 The student is required to re-take the component of the exit examination that they did not pass.
- 7.2 The student must be enrolled in all required courses and maintain a minimum accumulated 2.00 grade point average in the latest semester, and must submit a request to maintain student status within 2 weeks of the following semester without fee. Fees are applicable for taking the exit examination as stated in the university announcement of 2004.

No. 8 This announcement is effective from 2010 onward.

No. 9 In cases that there are any practices in conflict with this announcement, the President's judgment is sought and considered final.

Issued on September 27, 2010.
