

Mae Fah Luang University Announcement

Re: Criteria for tuition fee refund for the following semester in the case of a student dismissal due to low accumulated grade point average in the current semester.

.....

In the case that a student has been dismissed due to unsatisfactory grade point average and has already made full payment for the following semester, in compliance with the University regulations on tuition fee refunds and by virtue of Section 26 of the University Act, 1998 with the resolutions passed by the university council at the 11/2012 meeting on November 7, 2012, the specific conditions of tuition fee refunds are announced as follows:

1. Dismissed students for the reason of low accumulated grade point average who have already paid for the following semester in full qualify for a tuition refund. In order to claim their refund, they must complete the related document on tuition fee refund and attach a copy of their bank account and a copy of their student identification card or another personal identification card at the Division of Finance and Accounting.

2. Students eligible for the tuition fee refund must make their claim to the Division of Finance and Accounting not later than the end of the following semester. If they fail to do so, the refund is deemed disclaimed.

This announcement has been in effect as of the 2012 academic year onward.

Announced on December 20, 2012

Signed Vanchai Sirichana
(Associate Professor Dr.Vanchai Sirichana)
President, Mae FahLuang University