Mae Fah Luang University Regulation on
Dress Code for Students
BE 2560 (2017), Second Issue
……

To uphold its policy to prevent any unfair practice against paragraph 3 of Article 28 of the National Human Rights Commission of Thailand, BE 2542 (1999), and Article 17 of the Gender Equality Act, BE 2558 (2015), Mae Fah Luang University, acting on Article 17(2) and paragraph 2 of Article 56 of Mae Fah Luang University Act, BE 2551 (2008), and by consent of Mae Fah Luang University Board of Trustees reached in meeting 4/2560 (2017) on 18 July 2017, hereby stipulates the following regulation.

Item 1 This regulation is referred to as 'Mae Fah Luang University Regulation on Dress Code for Students, BE 2560 (2017), Second Issue'.

Item 2 This regulation is effective as of the beginning of the school year 2017.

Item 3 Item 5 of Section One (General Requirements) of Mae Fah University Dress Code for Students, BE 2558 (2015), has been repealed and replaced with the following.

Item 5 When attending a class, an examination or a ceremony, or when contacting any organisation of Mae Fah Luang University, a student shall be dressed in a university uniform or a professional uniform regulated by the university.

In case a student has an inviolable reason for not wearing a uniform as required in the previous paragraph, the student shall submit a request to the university through the university's procedure.

Issued on the nineteenth of July, 2017.

Signed (General Samphao Chusri)

Chair, Mae Fah Luang University Board of Trustees
