

Mae Fah Luang University's Commencement Attire Regulations For Graduates, 2003

.....

To ensure orderliness and uniformity of Mae Fah Luang University graduates' commencement attires, Mae Fah Luang University, empowered by Clause 21 of the 1998 Mae Fah Luang University Charter and by Mae Fah Luang University Directive 2/2002, issued on 9 October 2002, both of which authorise the President of Mae Fah Luang University to issue, for managerial improvement reasons, rules, regulations, codes and notifications not contradicting any of the University's previously declared policies and regulations, hereby issues the following regulations.

Clause 1 These regulations are collectively referred to as 'Mae Fah Luang University's Commencement Attire Regulations For Graduates, 2003'.

Clause 2 These rules apply to bachelor's degree students and are effective as of the date of issue

Clause 3 In these regulations:

'The University'	refers to	'Mae Fah Luang University'
'The President'	refers to	'The President of Mae Fah Luang University'
'A Graduate'	refers to	'a graduate of Mae Fah Luang University'
'An Academic Rob'	refers to	'a robe appointed by Mae Fah Luang University to be worn by a graduate of Mae Fah Luang University in the commencement'

Clause 4 A graduate who shall attend the commencement must be dressed as prescribed hereunder.

Bachelor's Degree Graduates

4.1 A male graduate must be dressed in:

- (1) A white Royal Pattern shirt (an outer garment called in Thai 'Raj Pattern') with five University-symbol low relief buttons made of silver-colour metal, and with a rectangular, School-color decorative band with isosceles ends and with a one-centimeter-wide golden ribbon running throughout its length, attached to the collar;

- (2) A pair of white, loose-fitting trousers extending to cover the ankles, with a fly, and with a vertical pocket on each of the outer seams;
- (3) A pair of black, leather shoes without any patterns or ornaments;
- (4) A pair of short, black socks without any patterns or ornaments;
- (5) An academic robe.

4.2 A female graduate must be dressed in:

- (1) A white uniform blouse buttoned up to the throat;
- (2) A formal, black skirt extending to cover the kneecaps, without any patterns or ornaments;
- (3) A uniform belt;
- (4) A pair of black, leather shoes with heels not higher than 3 inches and without any patterns or ornaments;
- (5) A pair of cream-color, diaphanous stockings (optional);
- (6) An academic robe.

Master's Degree and Doctorate Degree Graduates

4.3 A male graduate must be dressed in:

- (1) A white shirt, with a navy-blue neck-tie;
- (2) A navy-blue suit;
- (3) A pair of black, leather shoes without any patterns or ornaments;
- (4) A pair of short, black socks without any patterns or ornaments;
- (5) An academic robe.

4.4 A female graduate must be dressed in:

- (1) A formal, long- or short-sleeved, collared white blouse;
- (2) A black skirt extending to cover the kneecaps, without any patterns or ornaments;
- (3) A pair of black, leather shoes with heels not higher than 3 inches and without any patterns or ornaments;
- (4) A pair of cream-color, diaphanous stockings (optional);
- (5) An academic robe.

Clause 5 A graduate who holds a position in the civil service, police force or military shall wear his/her official uniform (without the cap) under the academic robe.

Clause 6 A pregnant graduate shall wear a formal, white, unpatterned and unornamented dress under the academic robe, with the length of the inner dress not exceeding that of the academic robe.

Clause 7 A Muslim graduate may wear a Muslim costume under the academic robe.

Clause 8 The President is authorised to enforce these regulations and to issue further rules and instructions in keeping with these regulations.

Announced date: the 25th of July 2003

Signed Vanchai Sirichana
(Associate Professor Dr Vanchai Sirichana)
President, Mae Fah Luang University