

Mae Fah Luang University Notification on Exemption of Prerequisites for Exchange Students

To fulfill its policy to promote academic collaboration with other countries and to create an international learning atmosphere on the campus, Mae Fah Luang University has entered into student exchange and academic collaboration agreements with several overseas institutions.

To ensure smooth continuation of these student exchange programmes, Mae Fah Luang University, acting on Article 26 of the Mae Fah Luang University Act, BE 2541 (1998), and by consent of Mae Fah Luang University Academic Council given in meeting 7/2555 (2012) on 4 July 2012, hereby issues 'Mae Fah Luang University Notification on Exemption of Prerequisites for Exchange Students', as detailed hereunder.

Exemption of prerequisites for an exchange student is subject to consideration by the relevant Programme Administration Committee, with the consent of the School Committee. Whether the student is qualified to enroll on courses offered by a programme at Mae Fah Luang University is subject to consideration based on the relevance of the courses that the student previously studied at the home university, as well as the student's overall qualifications.

Issued on the twelfth of July, 2012.
