

Mae Fah Luang University Announcement

Re: Fee Payments for the How to Live and Learn on Campus Activity B.E. 2560

Mae Fah Luang University has a policy which seeks to prepare first-year incoming students for university life. The How to Live and Learn program focuses on building interpersonal relations, using English in academic studies, and learning at the tertiary level.

According to section 26 of the Mae Fah Luang University Act, B.E.2541 and section 4 of the Regulations of Finance and Property of the University, B.E.2542, the following regulations are announced in accordance with the resolution passed by the Academic Council in Meeting no. 3/2560, dated 1 March 2017 as follows:

No. 1 This announcement is entitled “Mae Fah Luang University Announcement Re: Fee Payments for the How to Live and Learn on Campus Activity, B.E. 2560.”

No.2 This announcement has been applied to all students admitted since academic year B.E.2560.

No.3 The existing Mae Fah Luang University Announcement entitled Re: Fees Payment for How to Live and Learn on Campus, B.E. 2557 is cancelled. This new announcement is in effect.

No. 4 All first year students admitted to Mae Fah Luang University are required to attend the How to Live and Learn on Campus Activity. As the program is a requirement, the mandatory student fee is set at 2,200 Baht (Two thousand two hundred Baht).

For those first-year incoming students who register their enrollment at the University after the completion of the aforementioned activity, a fee waiver for the How to Live and Learn activity shall be considered. In these cases, The Academic Extension and Development Office has been authorized to approve and report to the President for further consideration.

No.5 The President of Mae Fah Luang University has been authorized to oversee the implementation of this announcement and his decision is reserved as final.
